I am Zoë.
It's my turn
To tell you what I like to learn.
So come along,
and you will see
The ways I take good care of me!

“Wake-up time!”
my mommy said.
So I get up
and make my bed.
It’s hard to get the pillows right.
They must have flip-flopped
in the night.

I am able to get dressed.
I choose the clothes
I like the best.
But here's the latest
Zoë news—
I can buckle
my own shoes!

When I fill up
my cereal bowl,
Some milk spills out—
is there a hole?
But even when I sort of mess it,
I can ask for God to bless it.

I can brush
my teeth just right—
Go up and down
to keep them white.

I comb my hair—
count one, two, three.
I wash my face
and smile at me.
