WHITE CHOCOLATE CHEX CRUNCH

FROM JESSICA'S RECIPE STASH

Jessica is a single mom just trying to get by, so anything that's quick and easy to whip up, she's happy to serve.

Ingredients:

- 3 12-ounce bags of white chocolate chips
- 3 cups of Rice Chex
- 3 cups of Corn Chex
- 3 cups of Cheerios
- 2 cups of pretzel sticks or mini pretzels, broken up
- 2 cups of cashew pieces
- 16 ounces of plain mini M&M's

Directions:

1. Pour the cereals, pretzels, cashews and M&M's into a large bowl.
2. Next, melt the white chocolate chips in the microwave very slowly for 2-3 minutes, stirring every minute until completely melted.
3. Pour white chocolate over dry ingredients and gently mix together until everything is well-coated.
4. Spread mixture onto two cookies sheets lined with wax paper or parchment paper.
5. Refrigerate 20 minutes or set in a cool place until chocolate sets up.
6. Break into chunks and enjoy!

BOOK EXCERPT

from THE SISTERS OF SUGARCREEK

Jessica glanced at the car clock to see if she was still on schedule. So far, so good.

“You keep looking at the clock,” Liz noted.

“I do?” Jessica feigned ignorance but deep down felt caught, knowing, of course, it was true.

Liz smiled at her. “Yes, you do.”

“Oh, I just have some things to do when I get home.”

“There’s never enough time when you’re a working mom, is there?” Liz sympathized.
