How to Use Your Go Bible

Welcome to the Go Bible! What do you think of when you hear the word go? Is it running as fast as you can? Starting a timed math or spelling test at school? Playing the first note with your orchestra at just the right moment? Go means something’s about to change. It means something new and exciting is starting. And that’s what can happen when you begin reading God’s Word!

This Bible includes several different kinds of bonus content to help you discover how the Word of God can transform your life—and how you can show other people what God has done for you. Let’s go!

Know, Grow, and Go:
These mini devotions will help you know God’s Word, grow in your faith, and go share your faith with the people around you.

Choose to Change:
What can you do when you face peer pressure? How can you love someone who is different from you? Multiple-choice options will help you choose how you might respond in real-life situations like these. Then check the answer to see what the Bible has to say.
Factoids:
Check out these interesting and fun facts about the Bible that you’ll want to remember and share with your friends.

True Tales of Transformed People:
Since the very beginning, God has been transforming people’s lives—and telling them to go tell the world about his love! These true tales will introduce you to people in the Bible who were forever changed by God.

Key Verse Challenge:
Unlock the truth with these memory verses. Each verse comes with a fun, interactive challenge to help you remember and understand it.
Book Introductions:
These overviews will fill you in on the who, what, where, when, why, and how of each Bible book. They also include a “Seek and Find” section so you’ll know what to look for as you read.

Special Pages:
These full-color pages are packed with big Bible ideas you’ll want to learn about, including . . .

- Faith and Science
- Jesus and the Old Testament
- Where to Turn When Life Is Hard
- Questions about Jesus
- . . . and more!

Questions about Jesus

Is Jesus God?
Yes! In John 1:1, John described Jesus as “the Word” and wrote, “The Word was with God, and the Word was God.” And in John 10:30, Jesus himself said, “The Father and I are one.”

How did Jesus do miracles?
Even though Jesus is fully human, he is also fully God (see Colossians 2:9). God created the universe simply by speaking, and that same power lives inside Jesus. He is able to heal and transform with just a word or a touch of his hand.

Why didn’t Jesus save himself from death on the cross?
He could have—and tells Peter that he could have asked for “thousands of angels” to save him (Matthew 26:53). Instead, he followed through with the plan God had for him (see Matthew 26:53-54). He knew his death and resurrection were necessary to make a way for humans to know God.

Where is Jesus now?
When Jesus left the earth over 2,000 years ago, we know that he went to heaven to be with God the Father (see Mark 16:19). But just like God the Father, Jesus is everywhere at once. He’s always with us, guiding us through his Holy Spirit.

Does Jesus love me?
Yes, he loves you—so much that he gave his life for you.

Faith and Science
Science is the study of the physical world and how things in nature work. It tells us a lot about our universe. For example, scientists have discovered that the earth is the exact distance from the sun and the moon to allow humans to survive. It has just the right amount of oxygen for us to breathe, and just the right amount of gravity to keep us on the ground—but not smooshed against it. The reason all these things are perfectly aligned is because God made them that way.

In fact, everything in God’s creation shows us how powerful he is. Romans 1:20 puts it this way: “Ever since the world was created, people have seen the earth and sky. Through everything God made, they can clearly see his invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature.” The next time you look at a cell through a microscope or gaze at a beautiful sunset, think about the God who made it all possible.

Where to Turn When Life Is Hard
The Bible is full of encouraging words and helpful insights. It offers practical advice and is packed with promises from God that we can hold on to in tough times. Here’s a list of powerful passages to turn to when you face difficult times.

When . . .

I’m lonely. God is always with you (see Isaiah 41:10).
I’m scared. Don’t be afraid. God is with you (see Deuteronomy 31:6).
I’m angry. Don’t let anger control you (see Ephesians 4:26-27).
I don’t want to listen to my parents. Ask God to help you lovingly obey them (see Ephesians 6:1).
I’ve done something bad. Confess your sin to God and trust in his forgiveness (see 1 John 1:8-9).
I wonder if heaven is real. Remember that Jesus is preparing a special place for everyone who believes in him (see John 14:1-3).
My friend is sad. Encourage them (see 1 Thessalonians 5:11).
My friend is mad at me. Apologize and do your best to make peace (see Romans 12:18).
Someone was unkind to me. Forgive them (see Colossians 3:13) and pray for them (see Matthew 5:43-44).
I want to get back at someone. Be kind to them instead, even when it’s hard (see 1 Peter 3:9).
Life doesn’t seem fair. God will bring good things out of bad ones for those who love him (see Romans 8:28).

Jesus and the Old Testament
We often think that Jesus made his arrival in the New Testament when he was born as a human baby. But when we look at the Bible closely, we can see Jesus in the Old Testament, too. Many stories and prophecies in the Old Testament point ahead to the coming of Jesus. And in the New Testament, we see how Jesus’ coming to earth, dying on the cross, and rising again were part of the incredible plan God has had since the beginning of time.
Questions about Jesus

Think about the God who made it all possible. In fact, everything in God’s creation shows us how powerful he is. The Bible says in Genesis 1:31, “And God saw everything that he had made, and it was very good.”

How did Jesus do miracles?

Even though Jesus is fully human, he is also fully God (see Colossians 2:9). God created the world from nothing (Genesis 1:1). In John 1:3, Jesus said, “All things were made through him, and without him nothing was made that has been made.”

Why didn’t Jesus save himself from death on the cross?

Matthew 26:53-54). He knew his death and resurrection were necessary to make a way for everyone who believes in him (see John 14:6). Jesus said in John 15:13, “Greater love has no one than this, that he lay down his life for his friends.”

Does Jesus love me?

Yes, he loves you—so much that he gave his life for you! In Ephesians 5:25-26, the apostle Paul said, “Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ also loved the church and gave himself up for her... In the same way, wives ought to respect their husbands as the Lord respects the church, for the husband is the head of the wife as Christ is the head of the church, his body.”

I want to get back at someone. Be kind to them instead, even when it’s hard (see Matthew 5:43-44).

Someone was unkind to me. Forgive them (see Colossians 3:13) and pray for them (see Matthew 18:21-22).

I wonder if heaven is real. Remember that Jesus is preparing a special place for everyone who believes in him (see John 14:1-3).

I don’t want to listen to my parents. Ask God to help you lovingly obey them (see Ephesians 6:1).

I’m angry. Don’t let anger control you (see Ephesians 4:26-27).

Diving into the Story

Have you ever wondered how to discover what a Bible story is all about? It’s not as hard as it might seem. Here’s the secret: to understand a story, don’t look just at what happens but at what changes.

Some Bible stories are about how people change. Other stories are about how God changes the world in big or small ways. Bible stories show us what God was doing in the past, and God still transforms people through these stories today. Stories aren’t just lists of things that happen; they’re about people hoping to accomplish or avoid something. When you read a Bible story, look for God and how he changes people’s lives. No matter which Bible story you’re reading, ask these four questions:

1. Who struggles?
2. What do they discover?
3. How do things change?
4. What can I learn about God and myself from this story?

Let’s look at 1 Samuel 3 as an example. This story begins with two problems. First, messages from the Lord are very rare at that time (1 Samuel 3:1). Second, Samuel does not know the Lord and has never had a message from him (1 Samuel 3:7). Both of these situations change by the end of the chapter.

Read the story for yourself. See in verse 15 how Samuel is afraid to do what the Lord asks him to do? He struggles to obey. But eventually Samuel chooses to follow God’s command even though it’s hard, and everything changes. He discovers that God is faithful and trustworthy (1 Samuel 3:19).

Now let’s look at verses 19-21. Messages from God have returned, and Samuel knows the Lord and shares his words. Both problems have been solved.

How were our four questions answered?

1. Who struggles? Samuel struggles to do what God tells him because he is afraid.

2. What do they discover? Samuel discovers the importance of obeying God and saying what God tells him to say. God gives him the responsibility of sharing an important but difficult message with Eli.

3. How do things change? Samuel changes from fearful to confident in God. God never leaves Samuel and helps him grow into a reliable prophet who speaks God’s messages to the people (1 Samuel 3:19-20).

4. What can I learn about God and myself from this story? No one is perfect, and many times we might be afraid to do what’s right, just like Samuel was. But God gives us the courage and strength we need to obey him. He can change our lives and help us grow, just like he did with Samuel!

Try using these four questions with any Bible story. Ask God to reveal his truth to you and transform your heart as you carefully study his Word.
Introduction to the New Living Translation

When we want to read something that’s written in another language, it needs to be translated into our own language. Translate means “to put the words and meanings of one language into the words of another language.” The Bible was first written in languages that most people today don’t know, so it has been translated into many modern languages, including English.

The Bible translation you hold in your hands was designed to be easy for you to read and understand. We hope that you will meet the living God when you read it. And we hope that you will be changed by encountering him. This introduction answers a few questions you might have about Bible translation and the New Living Translation (which we call the NLT).

Where did the Bible come from?

The Bible is the grand story of God, people, and the world we live in. It is God’s Word for us. God didn’t write down the Bible himself. Through his Spirit—the Holy Spirit—he spoke to people. Those people wrote down his words and actions for all of us to read. There are sixty-six sections in the Bible, and we call these sections “books.”

Many Bible books began as stories that were passed down through many generations. Then people wrote these stories down and collected them so they could be shared with everyone. Some Bible books were speeches or poems that people wrote down. Other books tell the history of God’s people. Others are letters that were written to churches or individuals to answer their questions or teach them about God.

God’s people continued to read and share these books over many years. Then the books were gathered into two groups. The Old Testament has thirty-nine books. These books tell the story of how God chose the Israelites to be his people and point the world to God.

The New Testament has twenty-seven books. These books include the stories of Jesus and his earliest followers. They also include letters that some of these followers sent to churches. As a whole, the Bible gives us God’s unique message for all people.

Why do we translate the Bible?

We translate the Bible so we can read it in the language we speak. The Old Testament was first written mostly in Hebrew. The New Testament was first written in Greek. Now, through translation, we can read the Bible in our own language.
The NLT translators wanted to help readers understand the message of the Bible. They accurately translated the words of the original languages into clear English. And they were extra careful to use words and phrases that make sense to today’s readers.

How was the NLT created?

A Bible translation team was formed that included Bible experts and English-language experts. Small teams of the Bible experts worked together to translate each book of the Bible into English. Then the English-language experts worked hard to make sure the translation was easy to understand. After that, the Bible Translation Committee, which included some of the Bible experts and English-language experts, reviewed the translation. Each Bible book went through many reviews and revisions by these teams. After that, the Bible Translation Committee agreed on the final translation.

What kinds of decisions did the translators make?

All languages change over time, so some of the words in older English Bible translations can be confusing to us. To create an easy-to-read translation, the NLT translators used words and phrases common to most English speakers today.

The translators made choices to help modern readers understand the Bible. They translated the words in the Bible for units of weight, measurement, and money into modern American terms, like pounds, inches, and numbers of coins. They also translated dates to match our modern calendar.

The original languages and cultures of the Bible used words like “man” or “brothers” when they meant both women and men. In today’s English, we usually use words that include everyone when we refer to groups of people. An important example of this is found in the New Testament letters. Christians were often called “brothers” in Greek. But the writers had both men and women in mind. So the NLT translates this Greek word as “brothers and sisters” to represent the meaning of the original texts.

How does the Bible sound?

We learn from the Bible itself that these books are meant to be read aloud in community and public worship (see Nehemiah 8:2-3; 1 Timothy 4:13; Revelation 1:3). We still read the Bible out loud in families, small groups, and church. Because of this, the translators wanted the NLT to be clear and understandable when read out loud. They wanted the hearers of the NLT to have a deep and exciting experience with the Bible.

Translating the Bible is a big and important task that is never finished. The translators prayed for God’s guidance and wisdom while they worked to translate the NLT. We hope this translation will bless and help the church and all people—including you.

How to Lead Others to Jesus

Following Jesus is the best decision you—or anyone—could ever make! So what about the people in your life who haven’t chosen to ask Jesus to be their Leader and Savior yet?

You can help others make the decision to follow Jesus too! In fact, Jesus tells all his followers to share about him with other people (see Matthew 28:19-20). He calls us all to tell people what he has done for us—how he loves and forgives us—and what he can do for them also.

Do you have a friend or family member who might want to know more about following Jesus? It can be scary to talk about your faith sometimes, so here are some steps to get you started.

1. Pray. Before you do anything else, pray for the person who doesn’t know Jesus. God can give you courage to talk with them, and he can also help you know the right time to do so. God loves this person even more than you do!

2. Share your story. One great way to begin a conversation about Jesus is to share what he’s done for you. Can you think of a time Jesus helped you with something or answered a prayer? What has changed in your life since you started following Jesus? What’s your favorite thing about being a Jesus follower? The answers to these questions are good starting points for sharing your faith.
3. Be a good listener. A lot of people have questions about Jesus and about becoming a Christian. It’s okay if you don’t know all the answers! Being a good listener will show the person you care, and you can always ask a Christian adult about the answers later.

4. Share what it means to follow Jesus. Tell the other person that Jesus is the only one who can forgive our sins and transform our lives! Romans 10:9 says, “If you openly declare that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.” If the person wants to become a follower of Jesus, you can help them tell Jesus that they believe in him and want him to forgive and lead them. Jesus always says yes to that prayer!

5. Invite them to church or Sunday school, and tell a Christian adult you trust. It’s wonderful when someone starts following Jesus, but they probably still have a lot to learn. That’s why it’s important for them to spend time with other Christians and start going to church. A Christian adult can help you invite them—and can pray for them with you.
Why the Bible Matters

Have you ever wondered why the Bible is so important? Have you had thoughts like How could a book written thousands of years ago change my life today? or Why did God give us the Bible, anyway? You’re not the first person to ask these questions. Let’s look at three reasons why the Bible matters.

1. The Bible is inspired by God. The Bible is made up of true stories, poems, letters, and more. But they all have one thing in common: they’re God’s Word. Human authors wrote down the books of the Bible long ago, but God gave them the words to say. We can trust everything the Bible says and get to know God through what he tells us in his Word.

2. The Bible points us toward Jesus. Jesus says it himself: “The Scriptures point to me!” (John 5:39). This means the Old Testament promised God’s people that Jesus would come to save and lead them. The New Testament shows us how Jesus lived, what he taught, and how his death on the cross made a way for us to be forgiven and transformed. The Bible teaches us everything we need to know about Jesus—and how to receive eternal life from him. It also shows us how to share that great news with other people.

3. The Bible shows us how to live. In 2 Timothy 3:16, Paul says Scripture is “useful to teach us what is true and to make us realize what is wrong in our lives. It corrects us when we are wrong and teaches us to do what is right.” The more you read the Bible, the more God will teach you how to follow him with your whole life. God’s Word changes us from the inside out, making us more and more like him.

Old Testament

Who wrote it?
The book of Genesis is not attributed to a specific author, but some scholars believe it was written by Moses.

What’s it about?
Genesis is a profound story about the creation of the universe, the existence of Adam and Eve, the fall of humanity due to sin, the Flood, the dispersion of humanity through the Tower of Babel, and the promise of the rainbow and the beginning of God's covenant with Abraham.

Why does this book matter?
Genesis introduces us to the beginning of time, showing God's perfect power, knowledge, and love. It tells the story of human sin and God's plan of redemption, which culminates in the birth of Jesus.

Where does it take place?
Genesis takes the reader on a journey from Mesopotamia (Genesis 1–11), through Canaan (also known as the Promised Land, Genesis 12–38), and finally to Egypt (Genesis 39–50). It covers a vast geographical range.

When does it take place?
The Bible doesn't provide specific dates for events in Genesis. Many scholars believe Abraham was born around 2166 BC and Joseph around 1915 BC, but this is not definitively known.

How does it fit in God's story?
From the beginning, God has always desired a loving relationship with humanity. However, human sin interrupts this fellowship, creating a separation between God and humanity. Genesis sets the stage for God's plan to restore this relationship through Jesus.

SEEK AND FIND
As you read through Genesis, watch for these important elements that pop up throughout the story. How many can you find?

1. People who choose to follow God
2. People who turn away from God
3. Brothers who start as enemies but turn into friends
4. People given new names by God

1 Most dates for people and events in the first eight books of the Bible depend on the date of Israel's Exodus from Egypt. Some Bible experts think it took place around 1446 BC, while others think it was closer to 1260 BC. Either way, everything the Bible says really happened! (It’s just a matter of when.)
The Account of Creation

1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. 2 The earth was formless and empty, and darkness covered the deep waters. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the surface of the waters.

3 Then God said, “Let there be light,” and there was light. 4 And God saw that the light was good. Then he separated the light from the darkness. 5 God called the light “day” and the darkness “night.”

And evening passed and morning came, marking the first day.

6 Then God said, “Let there be a space between the waters, to separate the waters of the heavens from the waters of the earth.” 7 And that is what happened. God made this space to separate the waters of the earth from the waters of the heavens. 8 God called the space “sky.”

And evening passed and morning came, marking the second day.

9 Then God said, “Let the waters beneath the sky flow together into one place, so dry ground may appear.” And that is what happened. 10 God called the dry ground “land” and the waters “seas.” And God saw that it was good.

11 Then God said, “Let the land sprout with vegetation—every sort of seed-bearing plant, and trees that grow seed-bearing fruit. These seeds will then produce the kinds of plants and trees from which they came.” And that is what happened. 12 The land produced vegetation—all sorts of seed-bearing plants, and trees with seed-bearing fruit. Their seeds produced plants and trees of the same kind. And God saw that it was good.

13 And evening passed and morning came, marking the third day.

14 Then God said, “Let lights appear in the sky to separate the day from the night. Let them be signs to mark the seasons, days, and years. 15 Let these lights in the sky shine down on the earth.” And that is what happened. 16 God made two great lights—the larger one to govern the day, and the smaller one to govern the night. He also made the stars. 17 God set these lights in the sky to light the earth, 18 to govern the day and night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good.

19 And evening passed and morning came, marking the fourth day.

20 Then God said, “Let the waters swarm with fish and other life. Let the skies be filled with birds of every kind.” 21 So God created great sea creatures and every living thing that scurries and swarms in the water; and every sort of bird—each producing offspring of the same kind. And God saw that it was good. 22 Then God blessed them, saying, “Be fruitful and multiply. Let the fish fill the seas, and let the birds multiply on the earth.”

23 And evening passed and morning came, marking the fifth day.
Then God said, “Let the earth produce every sort of animal, each producing offspring of the same kind—livestock, small animals that scurry along the ground, and wild animals.” And that is what happened. God made all sorts of wild animals, livestock, and small animals, each able to produce offspring of the same kind. And God saw that it was good.

Then God said, “Let us make human beings in our image, to be like us. They will reign over the fish in the sea, the birds in the sky, the livestock, all the wild animals on the earth, and the small animals that scurry along the ground.”

So God created human beings in his own image.
In the image of God he created them;
male and female he created them.

Then God blessed them and said, “Be fruitful and multiply. Fill the earth and govern it. Reign over the fish in the sea, the birds in the sky, and all the animals that scurry along the ground.”

Then God said, “Look! I have given you every seed-bearing plant throughout the earth and all the fruit trees for your food. And I have given every green plant as food for all the wild animals, the birds in the sky, and the small animals that scurry along the ground—everything that has life.” And that is what happened.

Then God looked over all he had made, and he saw that it was very good!

And evening passed and morning came, marking the sixth day.

So the creation of the heavens and the earth and everything in them was completed. On the seventh day God had finished his work of creation, so he rested from all his work. And God blessed the seventh day and declared it holy, because it was the day when he rested from all his work of creation.

This is the account of the creation of the heavens and the earth.

Looking More like God
Read Genesis 1:26–2:23.

From stars and mountains to manta rays and giraffes, God created everything! But only people are created in his image. Only we are made to look like him—but not in the color of our hair or how tall we stand. Rather, it’s in the thoughts we think, the words we say, and the things we do. And the more you pray, read the Bible, and help others, the more you’ll think, speak, and act like him. Pay attention to positive things other people do, too, and tell them you appreciate them!

The Man and Woman in Eden

When the Lord God made the earth and the heavens, neither wild plants nor grains were growing on the earth. For the Lord God had not yet sent rain to water the earth, and there were no people to cultivate the soil. Instead, springs came up from the ground and watered all the land. Then the Lord God formed the man from the dust of the ground. He breathed the breath of life into the man’s nostrils, and the man became a living person.

Then the Lord God planted a garden in Eden in the east, and there he placed... the man he had made. 9 The LORD God made all sorts of trees grow up from the ground—trees that were beautiful and that produced delicious fruit. In the middle of the garden he placed the tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

10 A river flowed from the land of Eden, watering the garden and then dividing into four branches. 11 The first branch, called the Pishon, flowed around the entire land of Havilah, where gold is found. 12 The gold of that land is exceptionally pure; aromatic resin and onyx stone are also found there. 13 The second branch, called the Gihon, flowed around the entire land of Cush. 14 The third branch, called the Tigris, flowed east of the land of Asshur. The fourth branch is called the Euphrates.

15 The LORD God placed the man in the Garden of Eden to tend and watch over it. 16 But the LORD God warned him, “You may freely eat the fruit of every tree in the garden—

17 except the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. If you eat its fruit, you are sure to die.”

18 Then the LORD God said, “It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper who is just right for him.” 19 So the LORD God formed from the ground all the wild animals and all the birds of the sky. He brought them to the man to see what he would call them, and the man chose a name for each one. 20 He gave names to all the livestock, all the birds of the sky, and all the wild animals. But still there was no helper just right for him.

21 So the LORD God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep. While the man slept, the LORD God took out one of the man’s ribs and closed up the opening. 22 Then the LORD God made a woman from the rib, and he brought her to the man.

23 “At last!” the man exclaimed.

“She will be called ‘woman,’ because she was taken from ‘man.’”

24 This explains why a man leaves his father and mother and is joined to his wife, and the two are united into one. 25 Now the man and his wife were both naked, but they felt no shame.

The Man and Woman Sin

3 The serpent was the shrewdest of all the wild animals the LORD God had made. One day he asked the woman, “Did God really say you must not eat the fruit from any of the trees in the garden?”

2 “Of course we may eat fruit from the trees in the garden,” the woman replied. 3 “It’s only the fruit from the tree in the middle of the garden that we are not allowed to eat. God said, ‘You must not eat it or even touch it; if you do, you will die.’”

4 “You won’t die!” the serpent replied to the woman. 5 “God knows that your eyes will be opened as soon as you eat it, and you will be like God, knowing both good and evil.”

6 The woman was convinced. She saw that the tree was beautiful and its fruit looked delicious, and she wanted the wisdom it would give her. So she took some of the fruit and ate it. Then she gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it, too. 7 At that moment their eyes were opened, and they suddenly felt shame at their nakedness. So they sewed fig leaves together to cover themselves.

8 When the cool evening breezes were blowing, the man and his wife heard the LORD God walking about in the garden. So they hid from the LORD God among the trees. 9 Then the LORD God called to the man, “Where are you?”

10 He replied, “I heard you walking in the garden, so I hid. I was afraid because I was naked.”

11 “Who told you that you were naked?” the LORD God asked. “Have you eaten from the tree whose fruit I commanded you not to eat?"
12 Then the man replied, “It was the woman you gave me who gave me the fruit, and I ate it.”
13 Then the Lord God asked the woman, “What have you done?”
   “The serpent deceived me,” she replied. “That’s why I ate it.”
14 Then the Lord God said to the serpent,
   “Because you have done this, you are cursed more than all animals, domestic and wild.
   You will crawl on your belly, groveling in the dust as long as you live.
15 And I will cause hostility between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring.
   He will strike your head, and you will strike his heel.”
16 Then he said to the woman,
   “I will sharpen the pain of your pregnancy, and in pain you will give birth.
   And you will desire to control your husband, but he will rule over you.”
17 And to the man he said,
   “Since you listened to your wife and ate from the tree whose fruit I commanded you not to eat, the ground is cursed because of you.
   All your life you will struggle to scratch a living from it.
18 It will grow thorns and thistles for you, though you will eat of its grains.
19 By the sweat of your brow will you have food to eat until you return to the ground from which you were made.
   For you were made from dust, and to dust you will return.”

Paradise Lost: God’s Judgment
20 Then the man—Adam—named his wife Eve, because she would be the mother of all who live. 21 And the Lord God made clothing from animal skins for Adam and his wife.
22 Then the Lord God said, “Look, the human beings have become like us, knowing both good and evil. What if they reach out, take fruit from the tree of life, and eat it? Then they will live forever!”
23 So the Lord God banished them from the Garden of Eden, and he sent Adam out to cultivate the ground from which he had been made.
24 After sending them out, the Lord God stationed mighty cherubim to the east of the Garden of Eden. And he placed a flaming sword that flashed back and forth to guard the way to the tree of life.

A. Tell the teacher to stop putting cookies where you can reach them.
B. Apologize and stop eating the cookies.
C. Yell at the baker for making the cookies too yummy.

Answer: B, because it’s best to tell the truth and take responsibility when you do something wrong.
God’s Good Creation

God made the entire universe out of nothing. He transformed empty darkness into a place full of life that shows us how powerful, creative, and loving he is.

We learn in Genesis that God created the concept of time by separating days from nights. He created the sun, moon, and stars that shine on us. He created the sturdy ground that we walk on and the trees and flowers that grow out of it. God created all the fascinating creatures that swim in the seas, fly in the sky, and walk on the earth. And, most importantly, God created Adam and Eve, the first humans, and gave them a beautiful place to live called Eden.

Eden was filled with different kinds of plants, including the tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. God told Adam and Eve that they could eat fruit from every tree except one. Only the tree of the knowledge of good and evil was off limits. Unfortunately, Adam and Eve disobeyed God’s command. As a consequence, they could not live in the garden with him anymore.

But—spoiler alert! God did not give up on the people he had made. He had a plan that would transform their hearts and bring them back to live in a glorious new home with him. Just like the Garden of Eden, this new home will have a tree of life, and the tree of life will bring joy and healing to all who believe in Jesus. What good news!
Cain and Abel

Now Adam had sexual relations with his wife, Eve, and she became pregnant. When she gave birth to Cain, she said, “With the Lord’s help, I have produced a man!” Later she gave birth to his brother and named him Abel.

When they grew up, Abel became a shepherd, while Cain cultivated the ground. When it was time for the harvest, Cain presented some of his crops as a gift to the Lord. Abel also brought a gift—the best portions of the first-born lambs from his flock. The Lord accepted Abel and his gift, but he did not accept Cain and his gift. This made Cain very angry, and he looked dejected.

“Why are you so angry?” the Lord asked Cain. “Why do you look so dejected? You will be accepted if you do what is right. But if you refuse to do what is right, then watch out! Sin is crouching at the door, eager to control you. But you must subdue it and be its master.”

One day Cain suggested to his brother, “Let’s go out into the fields.” And while they were in the field, Cain attacked his brother, Abel, and killed him.

Afterward the Lord asked Cain, “Where is your brother? Where is Abel?”

“I don’t know,” Cain responded. “Am I my brother’s guardian?”

But the Lord said, “What have you done? Listen! Your brother’s blood cries out to me from the ground! Now you are cursed and banished from the ground, which has swallowed your brother’s blood. No longer will the ground yield good crops for you, no matter how hard you work! From now on you will be a homeless wanderer on the earth.”

Cain replied to the Lord, “My punishment is too great for me to bear! You have banished me from the land and from your presence; you have made me a homeless wanderer. Anyone who finds me will kill me!”

The Lord replied, “No, for I will give a sevenfold punishment to anyone who kills you.” Then the Lord put a mark on Cain to warn anyone who might try to kill him.

So Cain left the Lord’s presence and settled in the land of Nod, east of Eden.

The Descendants of Cain

Cain had sexual relations with his wife, and she became pregnant and gave birth to Enoch. Then Cain founded a city, which he named Enoch, after his son. Enoch had a son named Irad. Irad became the father of Mehujael. Mehujael became the father of Methushael. Methushael became the father of Lamech.

Lamech married two women. The first was named Adah, and the second was Zillah. Adah gave birth to Jabal, who was the first of those who raise livestock and live in tents. His brother’s name was Jubal, the first of all who play the harp and flute. Lamech’s other wife, Zillah, gave birth to a son named Tubal-cain. He became an expert in forging tools of bronze and iron. Tubal-cain had a sister named Naamah.

One day Lamech said to his wives, “Adah and Zillah, hear my voice; listen to me, you wives of Lamech. I have killed a man who attacked me, a young man who wounded me.

If someone who kills Cain is punished seven times, then the one who kills me will be punished seventy-seven times!”

The Birth of Seth

Adam had sexual relations with his wife again, and she gave birth to another son. She named him Seth, for she said, “God has granted me another son in place of Abel, whom Cain killed.” When Seth grew up, he had a son and named him Enosh. At that time people first began to worship the Lord by name.
The Descendants of Adam

5 This is the written account of the descendants of Adam. When God created human beings, he made them to be like himself. He created them male and female, and he blessed them and called them “human.”

3 When Adam was 130 years old, he became the father of a son who was just like him—in his very image. He named his son Seth. 4 After the birth of Seth, Adam lived another 800 years, and he had other sons and daughters. 5 Adam lived 930 years, and then he died.

6 When Seth was 105 years old, he became the father of Enosh. 7 After the birth of Enosh, Seth lived another 807 years, and he had other sons and daughters. 8 Seth lived 912 years, and then he died.

9 When Enosh was 90 years old, he became the father of Kenan. 10 After the birth of Kenan, Enosh lived another 815 years, and he had other sons and daughters. 11 Enosh lived 905 years, and then he died.

12 When Kenan was 70 years old, he became the father of Mahalalel. 13 After the birth of Mahalalel, Kenan lived another 840 years, and he had other sons and daughters. 14 Kenan lived 910 years, and then he died.

15 When Mahalalel was 65 years old, he became the father of Jared. 16 After the birth of Jared, Mahalalel lived another 830 years, and he had other sons and daughters. 17 Mahalalel lived 895 years, and then he died.

18 When Jared was 162 years old, he became the father of Enoch. 19 After the birth of Enoch, Jared lived another 800 years, and he had other sons and daughters. 20 Jared lived 962 years, and then he died.

21 When Enoch was 65 years old, he became the father of Methuselah. 22 After the birth of Methuselah, Enoch lived in close fellowship with God for another 300 years, and he had other sons and daughters. 23 Enoch lived 365 years, walking in close fellowship with God. Then one day he disappeared, because God took him.

25 When Methuselah was 187 years old, he became the father of Lamech. 26 After the birth of Lamech, Methuselah lived another 782 years, and he had other sons and daughters. 27 Methuselah lived 969 years, and then he died.

28 When Lamech was 182 years old, he became the father of a son. 29 Lamech named his son Noah, for he said, “May he bring us relief from our work and the painful labor of farming this ground that the LORD has cursed.” 30 After the birth of Noah, Lamech lived another 595 years, and he had other sons and daughters. 31 Lamech lived 777 years, and then he died.

32 After Noah was 500 years old, he became the father of Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

A World Gone Wrong

6 Then the people began to multiply on the earth, and daughters were born to them. 2 The sons of God saw the beautiful women and took any they wanted as their wives. 3 Then the Lord said, “My Spirit will not put up with humans for such a long time, for they are only mortal flesh. In the future, their normal lifespan will be no more than 120 years.”

4 In those days, and for some time after, giant Nephilites lived on the earth, for whenever the sons of God had intercourse with women, they gave birth to children who became the heroes and famous warriors of ancient times.

5 The Lord observed the extent of human wickedness on the earth, and he saw that everything they thought or imagined was consistently and totally evil. 6 So the Lord was sorry he had ever... made them and put them on the earth. It broke his heart. And the Lord said, “I will wipe this human race I have created from the face of the earth. Yes, and I will destroy every living thing—all the people, the large animals, the small animals that scurry along the ground, and even the birds of the sky. I am sorry I ever made them.”

But Noah found favor with the Lord. The Story of Noah

This is the account of Noah and his family. Noah was a righteous man, the only blameless person living on earth at the time, and he walked in close fellowship with God. Noah was the father of three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

Now God saw that the earth had become corrupt and was filled with violence. God observed all this corruption in the world, for every one on earth was corrupt. So God said to Noah, “I have decided to destroy all living creatures, for they have filled the earth with violence. Yes, I will wipe them all out along with the earth! Build a large boat from cypress wood and waterproof it with tar, inside and out. Then construct decks and stalls throughout its interior. Make the boat 450 feet long, 75 feet wide, and 45 feet high. Leave an 18-inch opening below the roof all the way around the boat. Put the door on the side, and build three decks inside the boat—lower, middle, and upper. Look! I am about to cover the earth with a flood that will destroy every living thing that breathes. Everything on earth will die. But I will confirm my covenant with you. So enter the boat—you and your wife and your sons and their wives. Bring a pair of every kind of animal—a male and a female—into the boat with you to keep them alive during the flood. Pairs of every kind of bird, and every kind of animal, and every kind of small animal that scurries along the ground, will come to you to be kept alive. And be sure to take on board enough food for your family and for all the animals.”

So Noah did everything exactly as God had commanded him.

The Flood Covers the Earth

When everything was ready, the Lord said to Noah, “Go into the boat with all your family, for among all the people of the earth, I can see that you alone are righteous. Take with you seven pairs—male and female—of each animal I have approved for eating and for sacrifice, and take one pair of each of the others. Also take seven pairs of every kind of bird. There must be a male and a female in each pair to ensure that all life will survive on the earth after the flood. Seven days from now I will make the rains pour down on the earth. And it will rain for forty days and forty nights, until I have wiped from the earth all the living things I have created.”

So Noah did everything as the Lord commanded him.

Noah was 600 years old when the flood covered the earth. He went on board the boat to escape the flood— he and his wife and his sons and their wives. With them were all the various kinds of animals—those approved for eating and for sacrifice and those that were not—along with all the birds and the small animals that scurry along the ground. They entered the boat in pairs, male and female, just as God had commanded Noah. After seven days, the waters of the flood came and covered the earth.

11 When Noah was 600 years old, on the seventeenth day of the second month, all the underground waters erupted from the earth, and the rain fell in mighty torrents from the sky. The rain continued to fall for forty days and forty nights.

12 That very day Noah had gone into the boat with his wife and his sons—Shem, Ham, and Japheth—and their wives. With them in the boat were pairs of every kind of animal—domestic and wild, large and small—along with birds of every kind. Two by two they came into the boat, representing every living thing that breathes. A male and female of each kind entered, just as God had commanded Noah. Then the Lord closed the door behind them.

13 For forty days the floodwaters grew deeper, covering the ground and lifting the boat high above the earth. As the waters rose higher and higher above the ground, the boat floated safely on the surface. Finally, the water covered even the highest mountains on the earth, rising more than twenty-two feet above the highest peaks. All the living things on earth died—birds, domestic animals, wild animals, small animals that scurry along the ground, and all the people. Everything that breathed and lived on dry land died. God wiped out every living thing on the earth—people, livestock, small animals that scurry along the ground, and the birds of the sky. All were destroyed. The only people who survived were Noah and those with him in the boat. And the floodwaters covered the earth for 150 days.

The Flood Recedes

8 But God remembered Noah and all the wild animals and livestock with him in the boat. He sent a wind to blow across the earth, and the floodwaters began to recede. The underground waters stopped flowing, and the torrential rains from the sky were stopped. So the floodwaters gradually receded from the earth. After 150 days, exactly five months from the time the flood began, the boat came to rest on the mountains of Ararat. Two and a half months later, as the waters continued to go down, other mountain peaks became visible.

6 After another forty days, Noah opened the window he had made in the boat and released a raven. The bird flew back and forth until the floodwaters on the earth had dried up. He also released a dove to see if the water had receded and it could find dry ground. But the dove could find no place to land because the water still covered the ground. So it returned to the boat, and Noah held out his hand and drew the dove back inside. After waiting another seven days, Noah released the dove again. This time the dove returned to him in the evening with a fresh olive leaf in its beak. Then Noah knew that the floodwaters were almost gone. He waited another seven days and then released the dove again. This time it did not come back.

13 Noah was now 601 years old. On the first day of the new year, ten and a half months after the flood began, the floodwaters had almost dried up from the earth. Noah lifted back the covering of the boat and saw that the surface of the ground was drying. Two more months went by, and at last the earth was dry!

15 Then God said to Noah, “Leave the boat, all of you—you and your wife, and your sons and their wives. Release all the animals—the birds, the livestock, and the small animals that scurry along the ground—so they can be fruitful and multiply throughout the earth.”

18 So Noah, his wife, and his sons and their wives left the boat. And all of the large and small animals and birds came out of the boat, pair by pair.
20Then Noah built an altar to the LORD, and there he sacrificed as burnt offerings the animals and birds that had been approved for that purpose. 21And the LORD was pleased with the aroma of the sacrifice and said to himself, “I will never again curse the ground because of the human race, even though everything they think or imagine is bent toward evil from childhood. I will never again destroy all living things. 22As long as the earth remains, there will be planting and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night.”

God Confirms His Covenant
9Then God blessed Noah and his sons and told them, “Be fruitful and multiply. Fill the earth. 2All the animals of the earth, all the birds of the sky, all the small animals that scurry along the ground, and all the fish in the sea will look on you with fear and terror. I have placed them in your power. 3I have given them to you for food, just as I have given you grain and vegetables. 4But you must never eat any meat that still has the lifeblood in it. 5“And I will require the blood of anyone who takes another person’s life. If a wild animal kills a person, it must die. And anyone who murders a fellow human must die. 6If anyone takes a human life, that person’s life will also be taken by human hands. For God made human beings in his own image. 7Now be fruitful and multiply, and repopulate the earth.”

8Then God told Noah and his sons, “I hereby confirm my covenant with you and your descendants, 9and with all the animals that were on the boat with you—the birds, the livestock, and all the wild animals—every living creature on earth. 10Yes, I am confirming my covenant with you. Never again will floodwaters kill all living creatures; never again will a flood destroy the earth.”

11Then God said, “I am giving you a sign of my covenant with you and with all living creatures, for all generations to come. 12I have placed my rainbow in the clouds. It is the sign of my covenant with you and with all the earth. 13When I send clouds over the earth, the rainbow will appear in the clouds, 14and I will remember my covenant with you and with all living creatures. Never again will the floodwaters destroy all life. 15When I see the rainbow in the clouds, I will remember the eternal covenant between God and every living creature on earth.”

16Then God said to Noah, “Yes, this rainbow is the sign of the covenant I am confirming with all the creatures on earth.”

Noah’s Sons
18The sons of Noah who came out of the boat with their father were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. (Ham is the father of Canaan.) 19From these three sons of Noah came all the people who now populate the earth. 20After the flood, Noah began to cultivate the ground, and he planted a vineyard. 21One day he drank some wine he had made, and he became drunk and lay naked inside his tent. 22Ham, the father of Canaan, saw that his father was naked and went outside and told his brothers. 23Then Shem and Japheth took a robe, held it over their shoulders, and backed into the tent to cover their father. As they did this, they looked the other way so they would not see him naked. 24When Noah woke up from his stupor, he learned what Ham, his youngest son, had done. 25Then he cursed Canaan, the son of Ham:

“May Canaan be cursed! May he be the lowest of servants to his relatives.”

26Then Noah said,

“May the LORD, the God of Shem, be blessed, and may Canaan be his servant!”
27 May God expand the territory of Japheth! May Japheth share the prosperity of Shem, and may Canaan be his servant.”

28 Noah lived another 350 years after the great flood. 29 He lived 950 years, and then he died.

10 This is the account of the families of Shem, Ham, and Japheth, the three sons of Noah. Many children were born to them after the great flood.

Descendants of Japheth
2 The descendants of Japheth were Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras.
3 The descendants of Gomer were Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah.
4 The descendants of Javan were Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and Rodanim. 5 Their descendants became the seafaring peoples that spread out to various lands, each identified by its own language, clan, and national identity.

Descendants of Ham
6 The descendants of Ham were Cush, Mizraim, Put, and Canaan.
7 The descendants of Cush were Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabteca. The descendants of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan.
8 Cush was also the ancestor of Nimrod, who was the first heroic warrior on earth. Since he was the greatest hunter in the world, his name became proverbial. People would say, “This man is like Nimrod, the greatest hunter in the world.”
9 He built his kingdom in the land of Babylonia, with the cities of Babylon, Erech, Akkad, and Calneh.
10 From there he expanded his territory to Assyria, building the cities of Nineveh, Rehoboth-ir, Calah, and Resen (the great city located between Nineveh and Calah).
11 Mizraim was the ancestor of the Ludites, Anamites, Lehabites, Naphtuhites, Pathrusites, Casluhites, and the Caphtorites, from whom the Philistines came.
12 Canaan’s oldest son was Sidon, the ancestor of the Sidonians. Canaan was also the ancestor of the Hittites, Jebusites, Amorites, Girgasites, Hivites, Arkites, Sinites, Arvadites, Zemarites, and Hamathites. The Canaanite clans eventually spread out, and the territory of Canaan extended from Sidon in the north to Gerar and Gaza in the south, and east as far as Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiim, near Lasha.
13 These were the descendants of Ham, identified by clan, language, territory, and national identity.
Descendants of Shem
21 Sons were also born to Shem, the older brother of Japheth. Shem was the ancestor of all the descendants of Eber.
22 The descendants of Shem were Elam, Asshur, Arphaxad, Lud, and Aram.
23 The descendants of Aram were Uz, Hul, Gether, and Mash.
24 Arphaxad was the father of Shelah, and Shelah was the father of Eber.
25 Eber had two sons. The first was named Peleg (which means “division”), for during his lifetime the people of the world were divided into different language groups. His brother’s name was Joktan.
26 Joktan was the ancestor of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, Obal, Abimael, Sheba, Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. All these were descendants of Joktan.
27 The territory they occupied extended from Mesha all the way to Sephar in the eastern mountains.
28 These were the descendants of Shem, identified by clan, language, territory, and national identity.

Conclusion
32 These are the clans that descended from Noah’s sons, arranged by nation according to their lines of descent. All the nations of the earth descended from these clans after the great flood.

The Tower of Babel
11 At one time all the people of the world spoke the same language and used the same words. 2As the people migrated to the east, they found a plain in the land of Babylonia and settled there.
3 They began saying to each other, “Let’s make bricks and harden them with fire.” (In this region bricks were used instead of stone, and tar was used for mortar.) 4 Then they said, “Come, let’s build a great city for ourselves with a tower that reaches into the sky. This will make us famous and keep us from being scattered all over the world.”
5 But the LORD came down to look at the city and the tower the people were building. 6 “Look!” he said. “The people are united, and they all speak the same language. After this, nothing they set out to do will be impossible for them!
7 Come, let’s go down and confuse the people with different languages. Then they won’t be able to understand each other.” 8 In that way, the LORD scattered them all over the world, and they stopped building the city.
9 That is why the city was called Babel, because that is where the LORD confused the people with different languages. In this way he scattered them all over the world.

The Line of Descent from Shem to Abram
10 This is the account of Shem’s family.

Two years after the great flood, when Shem was 100 years old, he became the father of Arphaxad. 11 After the birth of Arphaxad, Shem lived another 500 years and had other sons and daughters.
12 When Arphaxad was 35 years old, he became the father of Shelah. 13 After the birth of Shelah, Arphaxad lived another 403 years and had other sons and daughters.
14 When Shelah was 30 years old, he became the father of Eber. 15 After the birth of Eber, Shelah lived another 403 years and had other sons and daughters.
16 When Eber was 34 years old, he became the father of Peleg. 17 After the birth of Peleg, Eber lived another 430 years and had other sons and daughters.

18 When Peleg was 30 years old, he became the father of Reu. 19 After the birth of Reu, Peleg lived another 209 years and had other sons and daughters.

20 When Reu was 32 years old, he became the father of Serug. 21 After the birth of Serug, Reu lived another 207 years and had other sons and daughters.

22 When Serug was 30 years old, he became the father of Nahor. 23 After the birth of Nahor, Serug lived another 200 years and had other sons and daughters.

24 When Nahor was 29 years old, he became the father of Terah. 25 After the birth of Terah, Nahor lived another 119 years and had other sons and daughters.

26 When Terah was 70 years old, he became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

The Family of Terah

27 This is the account of Terah’s family. Terah was the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran; and Haran was the father of Lot. 28 But Haran died in Ur of the Chaldeans, the land of his birth, while his father, Terah, was still living. 29 Meanwhile, Abram and Nahor both married. The name of Abram’s wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor’s wife was Milcah. (Milcah and her sister Iscah were daughters of Nahor’s brother Haran.) 30 But Sarai was unable to become pregnant and had no children.

31 One day Terah took his son Abram, his daughter-in-law Sarai (his son Abram’s wife), and his grandson Lot (his son Haran’s child) and moved away from Ur of the Chaldeans. He was headed for the land of Canaan, but they stopped at Haran and settled there. 32 Terah lived for 205 years and died while still in Haran.

The Call of Abram

12 The Lord had said to Abram, “Leave your native country, your relatives, and your father’s family, and go to the land that I will show you. 13 I will make you into a great nation. I will bless you and make you famous, and you will be a blessing to others. 14 I will bless those who bless you and curse those who treat you with contempt. All the families on earth will be blessed through you.”

4 So Abram departed as the Lord had instructed, and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he left Haran. 5 He took his wife, Sarai, his nephew Lot, and all his wealth—his livestock and all the people he had taken into his household at Haran—and headed for the land of Canaan. When they arrived in Canaan, 6 Abram traveled through the land as far as Shechem. There he set up camp beside the oak of Moreh. At that time, the area was inhabited by Canaanites.

7 Then the LORD appeared to Abram and said, “I will give this land to your descendants.” And Abram built an altar there and dedicated it to the LORD, who had appeared to him. 8 After that, Abram traveled south and set up camp in the hill country, with Bethel to the west and Ai to the east. There he built another altar and dedicated it to the LORD, and he worshiped the LORD. 9 Then Abram continued traveling south by stages toward the Negev.

Abraham and Sarai in Egypt

10 At that time a severe famine struck the land of Canaan, forcing Abram to go down to Egypt, where he lived as a foreigner. 11 As he was approaching the border of Egypt, Abram said to his wife, Sarai, “Look, you are a very beautiful woman. 12 When the Egyptians see you, they will say, ‘This is his wife. Let’s kill him; then we can have her!’ 13 So please tell them you are my sister. Then they will spare my life and treat me well because of their interest in you.”

14 And sure enough, when Abram arrived in Egypt, everyone noticed Sarai’s beauty. 15 When the palace officials saw her, they sang her praises to Pharaoh, their king, and Sarai was taken into his palace. 16 Then Pharaoh gave Abram many gifts because of her—sheep, goats, cattle, male and female donkeys, male and female servants, and camels. 17 But the LORD sent terrible plagues upon Pharaoh and his household because of Sarai, Abram’s wife. 18 So Pharaoh summoned Abram and accused him sharply. “What have you done to me?” he demanded. “Why didn’t you tell me she was your wife? 19 Why did you say, ‘She is my sister,’ and allow me to take her as my wife? Now then, here is your wife. Take her and get out of here!” 20 Pharaoh ordered some of his men to escort them, and he sent Abram out of the country, along with his wife and all his possessions.

Abraham and Lot Separate

13 So Abram left Egypt and traveled north into the Negev, along with his wife and Lot and all that they owned. (Abram was very rich in livestock, silver, and gold.) 3 From the Negev, they continued traveling by stages toward Bethel, and they pitched their tents between Bethel and Ai, where they had camped before. 4 This was the same place where Abram had built the altar, and there he worshiped the LORD again.

5 Lot, who was traveling with Abram, had also become very wealthy with flocks of sheep and goats, herds of cattle, and many tents. 6 But the land could not support both Abram and Lot with all their flocks and herds living so close together. 7 So disputes broke out between the herdsmen of Abram and Lot. (At that time Canaanites and Perizzites were also living in the land.)

8 Finally Abram said to Lot, “Let’s not allow this conflict to come between us or our herdsmen. After all, we are close relatives! 9 The whole countryside is open to you. Take your choice of any section of the land you want, and we will separate. If you want the land to the left, then I’ll take the land on the right. If you prefer the land on the right, then I’ll go to the left.”

10 Lot took a long look at the fertile plains of the Jordan Valley in the direction of Zoar. The whole area was well watered everywhere, like the garden of the LORD or the beautiful land of Egypt. (This was before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.) 11 Lot chose for himself the whole Jordan Valley to the east of them. He went there with his flocks and servants and parted company with his uncle Abram. 12 So Abram settled in the land of Canaan, and Lot moved his tents to a place near Sodom and settled among the cities of the plain.
Abraham and Sarah

IN A SNAPSHOT

- Lived as foreigners in Egypt
- Waited twenty-five years for a son
- Ancestors of the people of Israel
- Remembered for their faith

Big Promises: God called Abraham and Sarah—originally named Abram and Sarai—to leave their country and family and go to an unknown land. How would you feel if God asked you to move away from everything you knew? God promised they would become a great nation, possess a lot of land, and have more people in their family than they could count! There was one big problem though: they were way past the age when people can usually have babies. But they believed God could do what he said.

Bad Decisions: Abram and Sarai’s lives were like a roller coaster—up with hope, down with doubt. While they lived in Egypt, Abram pretended Sarai was his sister, not his wife, because he thought the lie would make things easier for them. Then Sarai got tired of waiting for a son, so she came up with an idea: get Abram to marry their servant Hagar and have a child with her instead. They couldn’t understand how God was going to do something they’d never seen before.

Impossible to Incredible: God gave the couple new names to prepare for their great blessing: Abraham and Sarah. These names were a sign of how God was doing something new through them. Finally, after twenty-five years, their promised son was born! It was so incredible, they laughed with joy. They even named their son Isaac, which means “laughter.”

Abraham and Sarah’s descendants became the people of Israel. Eventually, Jesus was born into Abraham’s family too. Abraham had doubts and made mistakes, but God transformed his heart and life. Abraham trusted God, and God kept his promise.

PASS THE TESTS

Think of the last test or quiz you took. Abraham faced a number of tests in his life, but they were a lot different from the tests you take in school. He was far from perfect, but he trusted God, even when God tested him.

Can you remember a time when it was hard for you to have faith in God? Today, pray that God would strengthen your faith and remind you how trustworthy he is.
13 But the people of this area were extremely wicked and constantly sinned against the LORD.
14 After Lot had gone, the LORD said to Abram, “Look as far as you can see in every direction—north and south, east and west. 15 I am giving all this land, as far as you can see, to you and your descendants as a permanent possession. 16 And I will give you so many descendants that, like the dust of the earth, they cannot be counted! 17 Go and walk through the land in every direction, for I am giving it to you.”
18 So Abram moved his camp to Hebron and settled near the oak grove belonging to Mamre. There he built another altar to the LORD.

Abram Rescues Lot

14 About this time war broke out in the region. King Amraphel of Babylonia, King Arioch of Ellasar, King Kedorlaomer of Elam, and King Tidal of Goiim fought against King Bera of Sodom, King Birsha of Gomorrah, King Shinab of Admah, King Shemeber of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (also called Zoar).

3 This second group of kings joined forces in Siddim Valley (that is, the valley of the Dead Sea). For twelve years they had been subject to King Kedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled against him.

5 One year later Kedorlaomer and his allies arrived and defeated the Rephaimites at Asheroth-karnaim, the Zuzites at Ham, the Emites at Shaveh-kiriathaim, and the Horites at Mount Seir, as far as El-paran at the edge of the wilderness.

7 Then they turned back and came to En-mishpat (now called Kadesh) and conquered all the territory of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites living in Hazazon-tamar.

8 Then the rebel kings of Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, Zeboiim, and Bela (also called Zoar) prepared for battle in the valley of the Dead Sea. 9 They fought against King Kedorlaomer of Elam, King Tidal of Goiim, King Amraphel of Babylonia, and King Arioch of Ellasar—four kings against five. 10 As it happened, the valley of the Dead Sea was filled with tar pits. And as the army of the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, some fell into the tar pits, while the rest escaped into the mountains. 11 The victorious invaders then plundered Sodom and Gomorrah and headed for home, taking with them all the spoils of war and the food supplies. 12 They also captured Lot—Abram’s nephew who lived in Sodom—and carried off everything he owned.

13 But one of Lot’s men escaped and reported everything to Abram the Hebrew, who was living near the oak grove belonging to Mamre the Amorite. Mamre and his relatives, Eshcol and Aner, were Abram’s allies.

14 When Abram heard that his nephew Lot had been captured, he mobilized the 318 trained men who had been born into his household. Then he pursued Kedorlaomer’s army until he caught up with them at Dan. 15 There he divided his men and attacked during the night. Kedorlaomer’s army fled, but Abram chased them as far as Hobah, north of Damascus. 16 Abram recovered all the goods that had been taken, and he brought back his nephew Lot with his possessions and all the women and other captives.

Melchizedek Blesses Abram

17 After Abram returned from his victory over Kedorlaomer and all his allies, the king of Sodom went out to meet him in the valley of Shaveh (that is, the King’s Valley).

18 And Melchizedek, the king of Salem and a priest of God Most High, brought Abram some bread and wine. 19 Melchizedek blessed Abram with this blessing:

“Blessed be Abram by God Most High, Creator of heaven and earth.”
20 And blessed be God Most High, who has defeated your enemies for you.”

Then Abram gave Melchizedek a tenth of all the goods he had recovered.

21 The king of Sodom said to Abram, “Give back my people who were captured. But you may keep for yourself all the goods you have recovered.”

22 Abram replied to the king of Sodom, “I solemnly swear to the Lord, God Most High, Creator of heaven and earth, that I will not take so much as a single thread or sandal thong from what belongs to you. Otherwise you might say, ‘I am the one who made Abram rich.’

23 I will accept only what my young warriors have already eaten, and I request that you give a fair share of the goods to my allies—Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre.”

The Birth of Ishmael

16 Now Sarai, Abram’s wife, had not been able to bear children for him. But she had an Egyptian servant named Hagar. 2 So Sarai said to Abram, “The LORD has prevented me from having children. Go and sleep with my servant. Perhaps I can have children through her.” And Abram agreed with Sarai’s proposal. 3 So Sarai, Abram’s wife, took Hagar the Egyptian servant and gave her to Abram as a wife. (This happened ten years after Abram had settled in the land of Canaan.)

4 So Abram had sexual relations with Hagar, and she became pregnant. But when Hagar knew she was pregnant, she began to treat her mistress, Sarai, with contempt. 5 Then Sarai said to Abram, “This is all your fault! I put my servant into your arms, but now that she’s pregnant she treats me with contempt. The LORD will show who’s wrong—you or me!”

6 Abram replied, “Look, she is your servant, so deal with her as you see fit.” Then Sarai treated Hagar so harshly that she finally ran away.

7 The angel of the LORD found Hagar beside a spring of water in the wilderness, along the road to Shur. 8 The angel said to her, “Hagar, Sarai’s servant, where have you come from, and where are you going?”

9 “I’m running away from my mistress, Sarai,” she replied.

10 The angel of the LORD said to her, “Return to your mistress, and submit to her authority.” 11 Then he added, “I will give you more descendants than you can count.”

12 And the angel also said, “You are now pregnant and will give birth to a son. You are to name him Ishmael (which means ‘God hears’), for the LORD has heard your cry of distress. 13 This son of yours will be a wild man, as untamed as a wild donkey! He will raise his fist against everyone, and everyone will be against him. Yes, he will live in open hostility against all his relatives.”

14 Thereafter, Hagar used another name to refer to the LORD, who had spoken to her. She said, “You are the God who sees me.” She also said, “Have I truly seen the One who sees me?” 15 So that well was named Beer-lahai-roi (which means “well of the Living One who sees me”). It can still be found between Kadesh and Bered.

16 So Hagar gave Abram a son, and Abram named him Ishmael. 17 Abram was eighty-six years old when Ishmael was born.

Abram Is Named Abraham

17 When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to him and said, “I am El-Shaddai—‘God Almighty.’ Serve me faithfully and live a blameless life. I will make a covenant with you, by which I will guarantee to give you countless descendants.”
At this, Abram fell face down on the ground. Then God said to him, “This is my covenant with you: I will make you the father of a multitude of nations! What’s more, I am changing your name. It will no longer be Abram. Instead, you will be called Abraham, for you will be the father of many nations. I will make you extremely fruitful. Your descendants will become many nations, and kings will be among them!

“I will confirm my covenant with you and your descendants after you, from generation to generation. This is the everlasting covenant: I will always be your God and the God of your descendants after you.

And I will give the entire land of Canaan, where you now live as a foreigner, to you and your descendants. It will be their possession forever, and I will be their God.”

The Mark of the Covenant

Then God said to Abraham, “Your responsibility is to obey the terms of the covenant. You and all your descendants have this continual responsibility. This is the covenant that you and your descendants must keep: Each male among you must be circumcised. You must cut off the flesh of your foreskin as a sign of the covenant between me and you. From generation to generation, every male child must be circumcised on the eighth day after his birth. This applies not only to members of your family but also to the servants born in your household and the foreign-born servants whom you have purchased. All must be circumcised. Your bodies will bear the mark of my everlasting covenant. Any male who fails to be circumcised will be cut off from the covenant family for breaking the covenant.”

Sarai Is Named Sarah

Then God said to Abraham, “Regarding Sarai, your wife—her name will no longer be Sarai. From now on her name will be Sarah. And I will bless her and give you a son from her! Yes, I will bless her richly, and she will become the mother of many nations. Kings of nations will be among her descendants.”

Then Abraham bowed down to the ground, but he laughed to himself in disbelief. “How could I become a father at the age of 100?” he thought. “And how can Sarah have a baby when she is ninety years old?” So Abraham said to God, “May Ishmael live under your special blessing!”

But God replied, “No—Sarah, your wife, will give birth to a son for you. You will name him Isaac, and I will confirm my covenant with him and his descendants as an everlasting covenant. As for Ishmael, I will bless him also, just as you have asked. I will make him extremely fruitful and multiply his descendants. He will become the father of twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation. But my covenant will be confirmed with Isaac, who will be born to you and Sarah about this time next year.”

When God had finished speaking, he left Abraham.

On that very day Abraham took his son, Ishmael, and every male in his household, including those born there and those he had bought. Then he circumcised them, cutting off their foreskins, just as God had told him. Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised, and Ishmael, his son, was thirteen. Both Abraham and his son, Ishmael, were circumcised on that same day, along with all the other men and boys of the household, whether they were born there or bought as servants. All were circumcised with him.

A Son Is Promised to Sarah

The Lord appeared again to Abraham near the oak grove belonging to Mamre. One day Abraham was sitting at the entrance to his tent during the hottest part of the day. He looked up and noticed three men standing nearby. When he saw them, he ran to meet them and welcomed them, bowing low to the ground.

3“My lord,” he said, “if it pleases you, stop here for a while. Rest in the shade of this tree while water is brought to wash your feet. And since you’ve honored your servant with this visit, let me prepare some food to refresh you before you continue on your journey.”

“All right,” they said. “Do as you have said.”

So Abraham ran back to the tent and said to Sarah, “Hurry! Get three large measures of your best flour, knead it into dough, and bake some bread.”

Then Abraham ran out to the herd and chose a tender calf and gave it to his servant, who quickly prepared it. When the food was ready, Abraham took some yogurt and milk and the roasted meat, and he served it to the men. As they ate, Abraham waited on them in the shade of the trees.

9“Where is Sarah, your wife?” the visitors asked.

“She’s inside the tent,” Abraham replied.

10Then one of them said, “I will return to you about this time next year, and your wife, Sarah, will have a son!”

Sarah was listening to this conversation from the tent. 11Abraham and Sarah were both very old by this time, and Sarah was long past the age of having children. 12So she laughed silently to herself and said, “How could a worn-out woman like me enjoy such pleasure, especially when my master—my husband—is also so old?”

13Then the LORD said to Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh? Why did she say, ‘Can an old woman like me have a baby?’ 14Is anything too hard for the LORD? I will return about this time next year, and Sarah will have a son.”

15Sarah was afraid, so she denied it, saying, “I didn’t laugh.”

But the LORD said, “No, you did laugh.”

Abraham Intercedes for Sodom

16Then the men got up from their meal and looked out toward Sodom. As they left, Abraham went with them to send them on their way.

17“Should I hide my plan from Abraham?” the LORD asked. 18“For Abraham will certainly become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth will be blessed through him. I have singled him out so that he will direct his sons and their families to keep the way of the LORD by doing what is right and just. Then I will do for Abraham all that I have promised.”

19So the LORD told Abraham, “I have heard a great outcry from Sodom and Gomorrah, because their sin is so flagrant. 21I am going down to see if their actions are as wicked as I have heard. If not, I want to know.”

22The other men turned and headed toward Sodom, but the LORD remained with Abraham. 23Abraham approached him and said, “Will you sweep away both the righteous and the wicked? 24Suppose you find fifty righteous people living there in the city—will you still sweep it away and not spare it for their sakes? 25Surely you wouldn’t do such a thing, destroying the righteous along with the wicked. Why, you would be treating the righteous and the wicked exactly the same! Surely you wouldn’t do that! Should not the Judge of all the earth do what is right?”

26And the LORD replied, “If I find fifty righteous people in Sodom, I will spare the entire city for their sake.”

27Then Abraham spoke again, “Since I have begun, let me speak further to my Lord, even though I am but dust and ashes. 28Suppose there are only forty-five righteous people in Sodom, I will spare the entire city for their sake.”

29And the LORD replied, “If I find fifty righteous people in Sodom, I will spare the entire city for their sake.”
