Best Friends!

Hey, girls! Do you know God wants to be your very special friend? He knows everything about you, and He wants you to know Him. This hands-on devotional book will help you discover God and His ways. You'll also find out that as you learn to live God's way, He will point you toward making the best choices in your daily life.

Living God's way is different than living your own way. That's why it's so important to learn to live His way. When we love God, He helps us learn to obey Him even when we don't want to at first. Living His way is the perfect way to be happy!

If there are words or ideas you find hard to understand, ask your parents or another adult to help you. If you're just learning to read, ask your parents, another family member, or an adult you trust to read this book with you. Puzzle answers are at the back of the book.

You can read the devotionals in this book whenever you want and in whatever order you like. Memorize each week's Bible verse and don't forget to pray! Ask God to help you use what you learn. Remember to listen for God's voice in your heart and mind.

Being friends with God is awesome,
so let's Get Star Ted!

God Wants You to Know Him

*I am the LORD; that is my name!
I will not yield my glory to another or my praise to idols.*

– Isaiah 42:8

God shows Himself in the Bible

“What’s your name?”

“My name is Sally. I live in the yellow house on the corner.”

“It’s nice to meet you, Sally. My name is Tracy. I live in the blue house by the park.”

When you first meet people, it is good to find out their names and tell them yours. How do you explain to others who you are? If you tell them your name, you share one of the most important things about you. By trading names, you are sharing about yourself.

God tells about Himself in the Bible. In today’s verse, God is introducing Himself. He wants you to know Him as well as you know your own family.

God already knows everything about you. He knows you so well that “even the very hairs of your head are all numbered” (Matthew 10:30). However, God loves to listen to you talk to Him. He likes it when you share about yourself.

Your Turn

1. How do you tell people who you are?
2. How does God tell you who He is?
3. How can you tell your friends about God?

Prayer

Thank You, God, for helping me to know who You are. I’m glad to know you! Amen.

God Wants You to Know Him

*I am the LORD; that is my name!
I will not yield my glory to another or my praise to idols.*

– Isaiah 42:8

The Contact List

Fill out these contact pages with the names of your friends and family.
Pray for each person every day.

Prayer

Dear God, help me remember to pray for my family and friends every day. Amen.

God Wants You to Know Him

*I am the LORD; that is my name!
I will not yield my glory to another or my praise to idols.*

– Isaiah 42:8

Name squares Puzzle

Write your name going down the squares, each letter going in a square. Make new boxes if you need to. Use each letter as the start of a different word that tells about you.

Prayer

Thank You, God, for my name. Teach me more about Your name. I want to know You better, and I want to tell people about You. Amen.

God Wants You to Know Him

*I am the LORD; that is my name!
I will not yield my glory to another or my praise to idols.*

– Isaiah 42:8

The Bible Tells What God Is Like

The day you were born was a happy day for your parents. Before you came home from the hospital, they signed a birth certificate. A birth certificate tells about you. It has your name and your parents' names. It also tells the time and place you were born.

Do you think God has a birth certificate? No! Why? Because God was not born. He does not have an age. He has always been! Your birth certificate tells who you are and some other things about you. But God tells us His names and other things about Him in His Word, the Bible.

The Bible tells us who God is—God has many names that help us to know Him. He is called Immanuel (“God with us”). He is also called the Good Shepherd. The Bible also tells what God does. It tells us that He is the Creator of everything. He sees and hears us. And the Bible says He always loves us. He never changes His mind about that!

Your Turn

1. What are some things the Bible tells us about God?
2. What is something you would like to know about God?

Prayer

I thank You, God, for the Bible. Your Word tells me who You are and what You are like. Help me remember to read Your Word each day. Amen.

God Wants You to Know Him

*I am the LORD; that is my name!
I will not yield my glory to another or my praise to idols.*

– Isaiah 42:8

Family art

Draw a picture of a family member's nose, ears, mouth, and eyes. Ask your mother, father, or grandparents to share some family pictures with you.

Prayer

Thank You, God, for creating me just the way I am! Amen.

God Wants You to Know Him

I am the LORD; that is my name!

I will not yield my glory to another or my praise to idols.

– Isaiah 42:8

Naming the stars

Did you know that God has a name for every star? It's true! Psalm 147:4 tells that He chose how many stars to make and calls each one by name.

Draw stars in the frame. Give each one a name. Then look for stars tonight!

Prayer

God, I see Your work in the night sky. Thank You for being my God.
Amen.

God Wants You to Know Him

I am the LORD; that is my name!

I will not yield my glory to another or my praise to idols.

– Isaiah 42:8

Family apple Tree

Write the names of family members on the apples. Put your mother's family on one side of the tree. Put your father's family on the other side of the tree. Let this family apple tree remind you that the same God who created apple trees also created you and your family.

Prayer

God, thank You for making all Your creations, and my family, too.
Amen.
