

Everything you always wanted to know about

HEAVEN

Randy Alcorn

Everything you always wanted to know about Heaven

Everything you always wanted to know about
HEAVEN

Randy Alcorn

*Tyndale House Publishers, Inc.
Carol Stream, Illinois*

Visit Tyndale online at www.tyndale.com.

TYNDALE, Tyndale's quill logo, and LeatherLike are registered trademarks of Tyndale House Publishers, Inc.

Everything You Always Wanted to Know about Heaven

Copyright © 2008 by Eternal Perspective Ministries. All rights reserved.

Previously published in 2008 as TouchPoints: Heaven by Tyndale House Publishers, Inc., under ISBN 978-1-4143-2360-2. First printing as Everything You Always Wanted to Know about Heaven in 2014.

Cover photograph of clouds copyright © Ocean/Corbis. All rights reserved.

Designed by Mark Anthony Lane II

Unless otherwise indicated, Scripture quotations are taken from the Holy Bible, New Living Translation, copyright © 1996, 2004, 2007, 2013 by Tyndale House Foundation. Used by permission of Tyndale House Publishers, Inc., Carol Stream, Illinois 60188. All rights reserved.

Scripture quotations marked NIV are taken from the Holy Bible, New International Version,[®] NIV.[®] Copyright © 1973, 1978, 1984, 2011 by Biblica, Inc.[®] Used by permission of Zondervan. All rights reserved worldwide. www.zondervan.com.

Scripture quotations marked NKJV are taken from the New King James Version.[®] Copyright © 1982 by Thomas Nelson, Inc. Used by permission. All rights reserved.

Scripture quotations marked ESV are taken from The Holy Bible, English Standard Version[®] (ESV[®]), copyright © 2001 by Crossway, a publishing ministry of Good News Publishers. Used by permission. All rights reserved.

ISBN 978-1-4143-9941-6

Printed in China

20	19	18	17	16	15	14
7	6	5	4	3	2	1

Contents

Author's Note xi

Introduction xiii

PART I THE PRESENT HEAVEN

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT WHERE WE GO FIRST WHEN WE DIE

What is the “present Heaven”? 3

Are there actually two distinct Heavens? 5

Do we remain conscious after death? 7

Is the present Heaven a physical place? 10

Do people have intermediate bodies in the intermediate
Heaven? 14

Will we be judged when we die? 19

What is life like in the present Heaven? 22

Do Heaven's inhabitants remember life on Earth? 24

Do people in the present Heaven see what is happening
on Earth? 28

Do people in Heaven pray for those on Earth? 32

Can it be Heaven if people are aware of anything bad
on Earth? 33

Will we live in Heaven forever? 37

PART II THE ETERNAL HEAVEN
WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT WHERE WE WILL LIVE FOREVER

Where do we get our misconceptions about Heaven? 41

Is Heaven beyond our imagination? 43

If “no eye has seen” Heaven, how can we know about it? 45

Is the eternal Heaven an actual place? 48

Is Heaven our default destination . . . or is Hell? 50

Is Hell real? 52

What did Jesus say about Hell? 54

What will it mean to unite Heaven and Earth? 56

Will the old Earth be destroyed . . . or renewed? 58

Will the New Earth be familiar . . . like home? 62

What will it mean to see God in Heaven? 64

What will it mean for God to dwell among us? 68

Will God serve us? 71

How will we worship God in Heaven? 73

Will we actually rule with Christ in Heaven? 75

How will we rule God's Kingdom? 78

PART III LIFE ON THE NEW EARTH
A TOPICAL GUIDE TO OUR MANY QUESTIONS
ABOUT THE ETERNAL HEAVEN

Abilities 83

Age 86

Alien Life 88

Angels 90

Animals 92

Anticipation 103

Bodies 105

Books and Reading 109

Boredom 112

Clothing 115

Conflict 117

Culture 119

Desires 121

Emotions 123

Entertainment and Recreation 125

Equality 128

Family 130

Food and Drink 132

Free Will	135
Friendships	137
Gender	139
Hell	141
Homes	143
Identity	145
Knowledge and Learning	152
Landmarks	157
Languages	159
Laughter and Fun	161
Marriage	163
Music	165
Nature	168
New Jerusalem	176
Oceans	180
Pets	183
Physical Space	185
Possessions	186
Privacy	190
Relationships	192
Remembering the Old Earth	199
Resurrection	204
Rest	207
Rewards	210
Sex	212

Sin	214
Sleep	216
Space and the Universe	218
Sports	225
Technology	227
Time	230
Time Travel	233
Tree of Life	235
Unfulfilled Dreams	238
Weather	240
Work	242

PART IV CAN YOU KNOW YOU'RE GOING TO HEAVEN?

PART V GOD'S PROMISES ABOUT HEAVEN

When you're wondering if there really is a Heaven . . .	259
When you're wondering what Heaven will be like . . .	260
When you're wondering if there's a place for you in Heaven . . .	261
When you're wondering if you will go to Heaven and how to get there . . .	262
When you're afraid of dying . . .	264
When you doubt there is life after death . . .	265

When you're searching for happiness that lasts . . . 266

When you long for something more than this world . . . 267

Scripture Index 269

About the Author 275

Author's Note

THE MATERIAL IN this little book is just a slice of all you can discover from Scripture about what Heaven is like and what it will be like for God's people some day. With help from my editors, Jason and Ron Beers, what you see here is taken from my larger, more comprehensive book entitled Heaven. I hope that after you read Everything You Always Wanted to Know about Heaven, you'll be enriched and will be motivated to learn more and more about the amazing place our God of wonders is preparing for his children.

Introduction

IN THIS BOOK, we'll see from Scripture an exciting yet strangely neglected truth: God never gave up on his original plan for human beings to dwell on Earth. In fact, the climax of history will be the creation of new heavens and a New Earth—a resurrected universe inhabited by resurrected people living with the resurrected Jesus.

A pastor once confessed to me, “Whenever I think about Heaven, it makes me depressed. I'd rather just cease to exist when I die.”

“Why?” I asked.

“I can't stand the thought of that endless tedium. To float around in the clouds with nothing to do but strum a harp . . . it's all so terribly boring. Heaven doesn't sound much better than Hell. I'd rather be annihilated than spend eternity in a place like that."

Where did this Bible-believing, seminary-educated pastor get such a view of Heaven? Certainly not from Scripture, where Paul said that to depart and be with Christ was far better than staying on a sin-cursed Earth (Philippians 1:23). My friend was more honest about it than most, yet I've found that many Christians share the same misconceptions about Heaven.

Jesus said of the devil, "When he lies, it is consistent with his character; for he is a liar and the father of lies" (John 8:44). Some of Satan's favorite lies are about Heaven. Satan need not convince us that Heaven doesn't exist. He need convince us only that Heaven is a place of boring, unearthly existence. If we believe that lie, we'll be robbed of our joy and anticipation, we'll set our minds on this life and not the next, and we won't be motivated to share our faith. Why should we share the "good news" that people can spend eternity in a boring, ghostly place even we're not looking forward to?

Fortunately, Jesus has come from Heaven to tell us about his Father, the world beyond, and the world to come. If we listen to him—which will require a concerted effort not to listen to the devil's lies—we will never be the same. Nor will we ever want to be. Satan cannot keep Christ from defeating him, but he can persuade us that Christ's victory is only partial, that God will abandon his original plan for mankind and Earth. Because Satan hates us, he's determined to rob us of the joy we'd have if we believed what God tells us about the magnificent world to come.

By the time you finish reading this book, you will have a biblical basis for envisioning the eternal Heaven. You will understand that in order to get a picture of Heaven—which will one day be centered on the New Earth—you don't need to look up at the clouds; you simply need to look around you and imagine what all this would be like without sin and death and suffering and corruption.

So look out a window. Take a walk. Use your God-given skills to paint or draw or build a shed or write a book. But imagine our world—all of it—in its original condition: The happy dog with the wagging tail, not the snarling beast, beaten and starved.

The flowers not wilted, the grass not dying, the blue sky without pollution. People smiling and joyful, not angry, depressed, and empty. If you're not in a particularly beautiful place, close your eyes and envision the most beautiful place you've ever been—complete with palm trees, raging rivers, jagged mountains, waterfalls, or snowdrifts.

Think of friends or family members who loved Jesus and are with him now. Picture them with you, walking together in this place. All of you have powerful bodies, stronger than those of Olympic decathletes. You are laughing, playing, talking, and reminiscing. You reach up to a tree to pick an apple or orange. You take a bite. It's so sweet that it's startling. You've never tasted anything so good. Now you see someone coming toward you. It's Jesus, with a big smile on his face. You fall to your knees in worship. He pulls you up and embraces you.

At last, you're with the person you were made for, in the place you were made to be. Everywhere you go, there will be new people and places to enjoy, new things to discover. What's that you smell? A feast. A party's ahead, and you're invited. There's exploration and work to be done—you can't wait to get started.

I have a biblical basis for all these statements, and for many more. After you examine what Scripture says, I hope that the next time you hear people say, "We can't begin to imagine what Heaven will be like," you'll be able to tell them, "I can."

PART I

The Present Heaven

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT WHERE WE GO FIRST WHEN WE DIE

What is the “present Heaven”?

1 Thessalonians 4:13 . . . Dear brothers and sisters, we want you to know what will happen to the believers who have died so you will not grieve like people who have no hope.

Philippians 1:23 . . . I’m torn between two desires: I long to go and be with Christ, which would be far better for me.

The apostle Paul considered it vital for us to know what happens when we die: “Dear brothers and sisters, we want you to know what will happen to the believers who have died.”

Most of this book will be centered on the eternal Heaven—the place where we will live forever after the final Resurrection. But because we’ve all had loved ones die, and we ourselves will die unless Christ returns first, we should consider what Scripture teaches about the present Heaven—the place Christians go when they die—and where they will live until the return of Christ and the final Resurrection.

When Christians die, they enter into what is often called the “intermediate state,” a transitional period between their past lives on Earth and their future resurrection to life on the New Earth. By definition, an intermediate state or location is temporary. “Intermediate” does not mean a halfway place that’s only sort of Heaven, but the place where we will live between our lives here and the “final” Heaven that will be centered on the New Earth.

Life in the Heaven we go to when we die is “far better” than living here on Earth under the Curse, away from the direct presence of God. Though it will be a wonderful place, the present Heaven is not the place we are made for, the place God promises to refashion for us to live in forever. God’s children are destined for life as resurrected beings on a resurrected Earth.

Are there actually two distinct Heavens?

Revelation 21:1 . . . I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the old heaven and the old earth had disappeared. And the sea was also gone.

Books on Heaven often fail to distinguish between the intermediate and the eternal states, using the one word—Heaven—as all-inclusive. But this keeps us from understanding important biblical distinctions.

In this book, when referring to the place believers go after death, I will sometimes use the theological phrase “intermediate Heaven,” but more often I will say the “present Heaven.” This is because the latter term seems less confusing to most people. However, both terms refer to exactly the same place.

The present Heaven is a temporary residence where departed saints live until the return of Christ and our bodily resurrection. The eternal Heaven, the New Earth, is our true home, the place where we will live forever with our Lord and one another. The great redemptive promises of God will find their ultimate fulfillment on the New Earth, not in the present Heaven.

Once we abandon our assumption that Heaven cannot change, it all makes sense. God does not change; he's immutable. But God clearly says that Heaven will change. It will eventually be relocated to the New Earth. Similarly, what we now refer to as Hell will also be relocated. After the Great White Throne Judgment, Hell will be cast into the eternal lake of fire (Revelation 20:14-15).